

The Arts Alliance Arts Bungalow About and Rates

About the Arts Bungalow:

When the Snyder House was a private residence, the now Arts Bungalow was the groundskeeper's home. When The Arts Alliance established their relationship with Deerfield Township in 2012, Cottell Park was then an established park and the Township offered to convert the Arts Bungalow for Arts Alliance's usage for summer art camps.

There are two playgrounds on the park grounds and plenty of picnic tables, swings, and green space on this 50 acre park.

The Arts Bungalow is well equipped with tables, chairs, windows, heating, air conditioning, handicapped accessible restroom, work sink, a piano, chalk boards, dry erase board, cork board, and project shelving.

It has two entrances, once that is handicapped accessible.

It comfortably holds 10 – 12 adults and 18 – 20 children.

Availability: The Arts Bungalow is available for rent seven days a week.
